

Have You Anything to Sell?
Try the WANT ADS.

Wednesday

The Times

Dispatch

October 8, 1913.

Have You Anything to Buy?
Try the WANT ADS.

Miller & Rhoads

Always--But Especially During

State Fair Week

A visit to Miller & Rhoads will be profitable as well as enjoyable. Each section of this, THE SOUTH'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STORE, teems with the Season's Newest Goods--New Ready-to-Wear Things and Millinery, New Silks, New Dress Goods, New Trimmings, New Fancy Articles and New Things for the Home. Out-of-Town visitors are warmly welcomed here--whether they desire to make purchases, or to merely "see the sights."

To-Day--

On account of "Richmond Day," and in order to permit all our employees to see the Fair--

The Store Will Close at 1 o'Clock

SPEEDERS FINED IN HUSTINGS COURT

Three Are Tried on Appeal From Police Court and Get Reduced Fines.

Speeders, tried yesterday in the Hustings Court on appeal from fines imposed in the Police Court by Justice Crutchfield, failed to secure discharges, but succeeded in obtaining material reductions in their fines. C. W. Davis, convicted in the Police Court for breaking the speed laws and fined there $100, was assessed $20 yesterday by Judge Richardson.

The case of J. Habel went to the jury, which reduced the $100 fine imposed by Justice Crutchfield to $50. The same jury tried the case of A. E. Donnan on appeal from a fine of the same amount, reducing the fine to $25.

William A. Coleman pleaded guilty to the charge of housebreaking, and was sentenced by Judge Richardson to serve one year in the State Penitentiary. William Brown, charged with the same offense, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of 1 cent and to serve twelve months on the public roads. The same charge against Rosa Brown brought her a sentence of six months in jail.

Robert Bridges was found guilty on the charge of grand larceny, and was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary. A like sentence was imposed on Richard Brown, convicted of malicious wounding. Edna Thompson, was found guilty of petty larceny and given fifteen days in jail.

CHARTERS ISSUED

Charters were issued by the State Corporation Commission yesterday as follows: One Hundred Distilling Company (Inc.), R. F. D. No. 2, Henrico County, Richmond, Capital, Maximum, $100,000; minimum, $10,000. John Krug, president; J. L. Wilson, secretary--both of Richmond.

Central Hat Company (Inc.), Richmond, Capital, Maximum, $25,000; minimum, $5,000. J. H. Carpenter, president; J. H. Carpenter, secretary--both of Richmond.

Boulevard Buffet (Inc.), Richmond, Capital, Maximum, $10,000; minimum, $1,000. Louis Guillemin, president; M. J. Colvett, secretary--both of Richmond.

Warren, St. Clair & Gillespie (Inc.), Capital, Maximum, $10,000; minimum, $1,000. J. N. Warren, president; L. E. St. Clair, secretary--both of Richmond.

The Smith County Orchard Company (Inc.), Capital, Maximum, $10,000; minimum, $1,000. East Radford, R. H. Hall, secretary. Glad Springs.

Attention was also issued to the charter of G. O. Tuck & Co. (Inc.), Danville, decrease in its outstanding stock $30,000 to $60,000.

Appraisals from $5 Fine.
J. M. Hillman, a driver, of 303 West Main Street, was fined $5 and costs yesterday morning in Police Court for assaulting W. H. Beveridge, Jr., a contractor, with a cane. Counsel, E. H. English, he noted an appeal to the Hustings Court. Hillman is alleged to have hit Beveridge on the head with the former's cane over the question of a settlement for work which had been done by the contractor.

Reckless Chauffeur Fined $20.
Cornelius Williams, colored, was fined $20 and costs and placed under $500 bond for his good behavior for six days yesterday morning in Police Court for recklessly driving a 1912 automobile. Williams was arrested on Monday night after he had driven a big sedan, a 1912 Buick, owned by E. R. Hitt, into a building in Duval Street.

State Library Open To-Day.
While all State offices will be closed today, the State Library will keep the doors open for visitors. The reason for this is that many fair visitors desire to go there, and it is necessary to accommodate them. So the library will be open and no holidays will be observed.

Negro Chauffeur in Trouble.
Wallace H. Carter, colored, was arrested on Monday at the entrance to the Fair grounds on a charge of exceeding the speed limit. He was charged with driving a 1912 Buick at a speed of 25 miles an hour on Monday morning by Detective T. J. Fitzgerald. Carter was arrested on a charge of exceeding the speed limit. He is being held in the City Jail.

Marriage License.
Licenses to marry were issued yesterday by the clerk of the City and County Court to Edward Dillard and Lottie Marsh.

SAVINGS BANK OF RICHMOND
107 E. MAIN ST.
Abraham Lincoln said: "Teach economy. That is one of the best and highest virtues. It begins with saving money."

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS

HOUSTON GIVES UP RACE FOR SPEAKER

Believed Here That His Retirement Will Greatly Aid
Edwin P. Cox.

Henry R. Houston, of Hampton, announced yesterday his retirement from the race for speakership of the House of Delegates. In his letter he did not throw his support to any candidate, but among those familiar with State political conditions, the announcement of Mr. Houston that he would offer for the position of chairman of the Democratic caucus, a position held since 1906 by Edwin P. Cox, of Richmond, was taken as an indication that the Houston forces would aid Mr. Cox in his campaign for the speakership.

Friends of Mr. Houston claimed several days ago that he had nineteen votes for the speakership. Now that he has conceded to have the largest number of votes of any of the candidates in the field, while a half dozen names have been mentioned, Mr. Cox regards as his two formidable opponents, Mr. Houston and Mr. Martin Williams, of Giles County, Democratic floor leader of the House, and General and Hugh A. White, of Lexington.

Mr. Houston has sent the following letter to members of the General Assembly:

"Having canvassed the field thoroughly, and given the matter mature consideration from every viewpoint, I have decided to withdraw from the race for the speakership of the next General Assembly. I would like to be chairman of the House caucus. So far as I know, there is no aspirant for this position, and I believe I am entitled to this much for eight years of faithful service in the House. I would appreciate most highly your vote and influence, and particularly a line from you as to how you view the matter, in the enclosed stamped envelope. With best wishes and high regards, I am, very sincerely yours, HENRY R. HOUSTON."

POLICE IN AUTO RUSH TO RESCUE

Told Negro Was Seen Dragging
White Man Across Boulevard.
Proves False Alarm.

Informed by a street car conductor that a negro was seen dragging a white man across the Boulevard, near Broad Street, last night at 9:30 o'clock, Captain George W. Egan stopped Louis Marchetti, of 1314 East Broad Street, who was passing in an automobile and requested him to stop. A hurried trip was made to the scene. Police Station, and here Captain Egan was joined by Patrolman Tignor.

Recalling a murder which happened here once again on the Boulevard, during the Fair Week, Captain Egan requested Marchetti to lose no time in reaching the scene. About a hundred feet from the Boulevard, lying upon the wet grass, Tignor saw the forms of several men. The machine was stopped, and the officers jumped out.

The quartet consisted of two white men and two negroes. The former were stopped with difficulty, while the negroes appeared entirely calm. One of the white men, who had come here for the fair, and that they were in their employ for a carriage to take the white men to their rooms. One of the men was sufficiently aroused to corroborate the statement of the negroes.

A baffling himself that there was nothing wrong Captain Egan and Tignor left the negroes with their charges.

"I wanted to be satisfied there was nothing crooked out here," said Captain Egan, as he started for the station-house.

TEST CITY'S RIGHT
Right of Police to Designate Automobile Stands Is Issue.

George L. Egan, an automobile owner, appeared from a fine of $25 yesterday morning in Police Court for permitting a "for hire" car to stand on Sixth Street between Grace and Broad. The appeal was taken with a view of testing the city's right to designate stands for parking cars.

BARTON HEIGHTS ASKS FOR WATER

Temporary Failure of Artesian Wells Drives Suburb to Ask City's Help.

WANTS VIADUCT REPAIRED
Board Instructs Richmond and Henrico to Safeguard Marshall Street Bridge.

The temporary failure of artesian wells which supply a large portion of Barton Heights with water, drove that town yesterday to apply to the Administrative Board for permission to connect with the city water main at Virginia Avenue and Peg Street. The city's help, it was stated, was sought only to relieve a situation which will not be permanent.

Recognizing the emergency nature of the request the board directed the Superintendent of the Water works to deliver to Barton Heights through its own connections 200,000 gallons of water at the rate charged non-residents. The affected territory will be part of the city when the pending annexation ordinance becomes law, and will then receive the water service accorded to the rest of the city.

City to Raise Wires.
The Superintendent of the Electric Plant was directed yesterday by the board to raise the overhead construction of the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company across the tracks of the Seaboard Air Line Railway on Marshall Street near Brown, and to charge the cost of the work to the company. The receivers of the Richmond and Henrico were notified to do this work several days ago, but replied in a manner that the board did not consider satisfactory.

The overhead construction in question embraces some of the company's wires which, according to the City Engineer, cross the Seaboard Air Line Railway with the consent of the board, required by the city ordinance. The Virginia Trust Company was notified yesterday that the work will be done by the city at the expense of the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company.

C. Sims Bailey, general superintendent of the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company, was notified by the board to install at once the repairs needed on the Marshall Street viaduct. City Engineer Bolling has directed attention to the danger to persons passing beneath the bridge arising from the crumbling of concrete on the underside of the viaduct.

NEGRO BROUGHT HERE

Wounded Prisoner, Who Attempted to Break Jail at Memorial Hospital.
Jack Carroll, a burly negro, who was shot while attempting to escape from the jail at Sturge's courthouse last night, was brought to the Memorial Hospital yesterday morning for treatment. He was shot in the back by an officer while attempting to get away with a fellow prisoner. The wound was fatal.

Carroll came here in custody of Deputy Sheriff Greene. The latter said that the negro, who was shot in the back, was shot while attempting to escape from the jail at Sturge's courthouse last night. He was shot in the back by an officer while attempting to get away with a fellow prisoner. The wound was fatal.

JUDGE SCOTT LEAVES

Sessions of the Henrico Circuit Court Postponed Until Next Week.
Judge R. Carter Scott, of the Henrico Circuit Court, left yesterday morning for New York City, where he will attend to the business of the Protestant Episcopal Church. No session of the court was held yesterday. The next session will be held on Monday.

The absence of Judge Scott puts an end to the fight made by W. C. Smith and W. L. Wheeler, through their counsel, W. A. White, to prevent the association of the State Fair, Attorney Wilbur, on Monday asked that the license be revoked, but this was refused. He also left town, but will return tomorrow.

Building Permits.
Building permits were issued yesterday as follows:
T. J. Egan, to repair brick dwelling at 2913 S. Street, at a cost of $500.
W. D. Carter, to repair brick dwelling at 2305 Hanover Avenue, at a cost of $250.

Mr. Brauer, to repair brick stable in the rear of 916 Brook Avenue, at a cost of $100.
Mr. Martin, to repair brick stable in the rear of 163 East Grace Street, at a cost of $100.

Forgery Charge Against Him.
John Shoup, alias John White, twenty-three years old, a native of Kentucky, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Egan on a warrant charging him with forging the name of D. L. Egan to a check for $100. Shoup was arrested at his home, 327 North Eighth Street, and locked up at the First Police Station.

Governor Mann at Old Point.
Governor William Mann spent yesterday at Old Point Comfort, where he was to hold a conference with the officers of the United States Marine Corps, who are holding a convention at the Chamberlin Hotel. The Governor returned to Richmond last night.

Arrested for Checkless Driving.
Charles Gilliam, colored, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with recklessly driving a team of mules.

Alleged Gunster Arrested.
Charles Gentry, colored, was arrested by Detective Tignor on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, a revolver.

CARE

is as essential to success as industry. The industrious man may make money, but if he does not take care of it he is throwing away with one hand while he is gaining with the other. Watch the little expenses in your business, they count up and often swallow up most of the profits. A careful investigation and curtailing of expenses often adds as much to your net earnings as the increase of business. A sure means of protection for your proceeds is to deposit them in a Strong Institution like

The American National Bank of Richmond, Virginia.

Assuring you the SECURITY AND SERVICE OF
$1,600,000 Capital and Surplus.

MORRIS WEINSTEIN IS INDICTED AGAIN

Grand Jury Returns It While Counsel Is Trying to Have First Thrown Out.

Creditors Charge Conspiracy to Defraud on Part of Local Merchant.

To strengthen the case against Morris Weinstein, indicted with Nathan Weinstein for perjury in bankruptcy proceedings, United States District Attorney Groner yesterday secured another indictment against him from the Federal grand jury. In the effort to break down the indictment returned at the last term of the United States District Court, attorneys for Morris Weinstein yesterday morning argued before Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., on the ground that the indictment was in progress, the grand jury returned a second indictment for perjury. Judge Waddill will make known his decision on the demurrer this morning.

The grand jury indicted Weinstein for conspiracy to defraud Nathan Weinstein's creditors in bankruptcy proceedings will begin this morning when Morris Weinstein is arraigned. Should the judge quash the first indictment it is expected that he will be tried on the one secured yesterday. Nathan Weinstein's case will be called to-morrow morning unless the first trial should prove more tedious than is thought.

Charge of Fraud.
Last winter Nathan Weinstein, who conducted a clothing store on East Main Street, became a voluntary bankrupt in the United States District Court, presenting a schedule of liabilities in excess of his assets. Shortly afterward he was arrested on the charge made by some of his creditors that he had moved $1,000 worth of stock from the store just preceding the filing of his bankruptcy petition. He was held by the United States commissioner for the grand jury and indicted for perjury at the last session of the court.

The Federal grand jury, which returned nine indictments on Monday, returned fifteen yesterday and adjourned over until this morning. Further indictments are expected to-day. The fifteen indictments returned yesterday the majority were secret, the court being unwilling to publish them until the persons named therein have been taken into custody.

The true bills brought in cover larceny on the high seas, receiving goods stolen on the high seas, unlicensed liquor selling, breaking of the cattle quarantine, stealing stamps from the post-office, sending of indecent mail, cruising in forbidden waters, and larceny on government reservations.

WORK SAME TRICK TO COMMIT THEFT

"Gas Inspectors" Follow Lead of
"Telephone Inspector" and Get Cash.

Following the robbery on Monday at the home of W. C. Bronson, 408 North Allen Avenue, by a Mike Egan, telephone inspector, the same trick was successfully worked yesterday afternoon by two young white men who called at the home of Lazarus Karp, 114 West Grace Street, and presented themselves as gas inspectors. They said that they had come to examine the meter and were given entrance to the house.

After remaining some time, they departed, saying that all the pipes and meter were in good condition. Shortly after they had gone, Annie Morris, a domestic in Dr. Karp's employ, found that $5.70 had been stolen from a suitcase she owned. She informed the physician, and he at once called in the police.

Patrolman Tignor, who made the investigation of the case, found that the "inspectors" were clad in white overalls, and to all appearances were pointers, as one of them carried a tin bucket.

At the home of Mr. Bronson the "telephone inspector" succeeded in getting away with two rings.

Reports Cash Stolen.
G. W. Sizemore, of 299 East Broad Street, yesterday reported to the police that his room was entered and $5 in currency stolen from his trousers' pocket.

Post-Office Closes

The post-office will be closed to-day. Postmaster Mann yesterday received authority from the Postmaster-General to give the employees half-holiday on Richmond Day at the State Fair. Mail will be delivered and collected until 2 o'clock noon, but no deliveries will be made this afternoon. The stamp windows, general delivery, money order and registry departments will quit business for the day at noon. The handling of transient mail inside the post-office will not be interrupted.

King & Co. Want Government to Refund Money Orders Stolen
by Frank H. Fitzgerald.

The suit of King & Co., Ltd., against the United States for the recovery of $663.71, growing out of the conviction of Frank H. Fitzgerald, a Kingan employe, for forgery in 1911, was renewed yesterday before Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., in the United States District Court. Kingan & Co. are suing the government for the amount of money orders stolen and collected by Fitzgerald for forging the firm's name. Judge Waddill heard the argument yesterday and will render a decision later. No jury sat in the case.

Fitzgerald, a resident of South Richmond, was sent to the State Penitentiary about ten years ago for embezzlement while serving as secretary of the Manchester School Board. After he made several part of his term, friends became interested in his case and secured his pardon from the Governor, at the same time giving him work. In 1911 he was discovered embezzling money from Kingan & Co., and was sent to the penitentiary a second time.

It was not until March, 1912, that it was discovered Fitzgerald had forged Kingan & Co.'s name to nine money orders, collected $663.71 from the post-office. Kingan & Co. at once instituted suit against the government to recover the amount of money alleged to have been paid to Fitzgerald without authority from the person named in the money orders.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA PLANS OF UNITED SCHOOLS

Medical College of Virginia Plans Big Occasion for October 26 and 30.

COLLEGE HAS 525 STUDENTS.
Has Added to Organized Schools New Course for Training of Nurses.

Officers of the Medical College of Virginia completed yesterday the program of the exercises which will usher in the formal opening of the united institution. Although the union between the old Medical College of Virginia and University College of Medicine has been in practical effect since the opening of the matriculation books more than three weeks ago, the formal opening of the Greater Medical College of Virginia has been deferred until October 26.

The underlying idea in holding a formal opening as distinguished from the term opening last month, is to afford the officers of the college to set forth before a large gathering of citizens the larger purposes of the united school. The occasion will mark a new era in the history of medicine, and will bring out addresses by men prominent in the life of the city and State.

College Has 525 Students.
There are at present enrolled in the college in all departments 525 students. The number almost equals the attendance at both colleges last year. In addition to the schools of medicine, dentistry and pharmacy, a special course has this year been arranged for the training of nurses. The college is addressing itself seriously to the new teaching of medicine in its social and preventive aspects.

The program for the formal opening will begin at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, October 26, with a special sermon by Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., at the Second Presbyterian Church. The program of Dr. Moore's sermon will be "The Christian and the City." He will be assisted in the services by Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., pastor of the church, and by Rev. R. H. Pitt, D. D., and Rev. James Power Smith, D. D.

On Thursday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock will come the celebration proper. It will be held in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School and will be open to the public.

Program at High School.
The program that will be observed at the High School follows:
The program will be observed at the High School follows:
Governor W. H. Mann, Jr., will deliver the address, "The City and the State." Mayor George A. B. B. will deliver the address, "The City and the State." The program will be observed at the High School follows:

Board to Meet.
There will be a meeting of the board of visitors at the college building on Thursday, October 30, at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The board of visitors consists of J. N. Barney, M. D., Fredericksburg; E. L. Benish, Richmond; H. L. Cabell, Richmond; C. D. Cardwell, Richmond; George L. Christian, Richmond; J. B. Fisher, M. D., Middleburg; W. L. Harris, M. D., Norfolk; Egan Hunt, Jr., Richmond; Paulus A. Irving, M. D., Farmville; John M. Johnson, Alexandria; J. D. Johnson, Roanoke; W. R. Miller, Richmond; L. Z. Morris, Richmond; H. S. Myers, M. D., Forks of Buffalo; Robert C. Randolph, M. D., Boyce; E. D. Taylor, Richmond; John W. Williams, Petersburg.

Moonshine Plant Raided.
Revenue Agent W. H. Chapman yesterday received a report from Deputy Collector J. J. Fitzgerald, of the seizure on October 4 of an illicit distillery near Chatham in Franklin County. Distilling apparatus valued at $1,000, and a quantity of moonshine were seized. Although the officers remained in hiding at the still for five hours they failed to discover the location of the still. The property was destroyed. A 1912 Buick sedan, copper still and worm, eight fermenters, beer and beer, and thirty gallons of corn whiskey.

Heard Argument in Theft Case
King & Co. Want Government to Refund Money Orders Stolen by Frank H. Fitzgerald.

The suit of King & Co., Ltd., against the United States for the recovery of $663.71, growing out of the conviction of Frank H. Fitzgerald, a Kingan employe, for forgery in 1911, was renewed yesterday before Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., in the United States District Court. Kingan & Co. are suing the government for the amount of money orders stolen and collected by Fitzgerald for forging the firm's name. Judge Waddill heard the argument yesterday and will render a decision later. No jury sat in the case.

Fitzgerald, a resident of South Richmond, was sent to the State Penitentiary about ten years ago for embezzlement while serving as secretary of the Manchester School Board. After he made several part of his term, friends became interested in his case and secured his pardon from the Governor, at the same time giving him work. In 1911 he was discovered embezzling money from Kingan & Co., and was sent to the penitentiary a second time.

It was not until March, 1912, that it was discovered Fitzgerald had forged Kingan & Co.'s name to nine money orders, collected $663.71 from the post-office. Kingan & Co. at once instituted suit against the government to recover the amount of money alleged to have been paid to Fitzgerald without authority from the person named in the money orders.

Judge Waddill also heard argument in the suit of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company against J. J. Fairbanks for demurrage claims.

Visitors to the Fair

Will find in our establishment an unusually attractive array of Fall Merchandise. In Clothing, Furnishings and Hats we are showing all that is new.

Gans-Rady Company

1005 East Main Street
Opposite Post-Office

VICE-PRESIDENT MARSHALL GETS QUICK LUNCH SANDWICH

Forced to Eat at Main Street Station When His Train Failed to Handle Dining Car.

The Vice-President of the United States "dined" yesterday in the lunchroom at the Main Street Station. There was no toastmaster, there were no invited guests, and while the distinguished visitor was jostled by a hungry crowd that fought for front place at the real pie counter, he smiled and refused to lose his temper. Indeed, he seemed to enjoy it. Quick-lunch slang changes so often that one cannot now recall the exact language uttered by the counter agent when he screamed to the boy behind him to shoot along a ham sandwich and a cup of coffee, very hot and very hot. When he had put it away Vice-President Marshall took S. B. Love, of Richmond, by the arm and they walked back to the train, en route to Petersburg.

One must be particular in relating the affair of the railroads, especially when they operate trains in joint service account. Along with other travelers, the Vice-President left Washington yesterday morning at 9:45 o'clock on the train No. 42, from Washington to Quantico. The train was operated by the Washington-Southern Railway. This is proved by the books. From Quantico to Acca, a little station not far from the State's dairy farm, No. 42 is handled by the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, sometimes known as the R. F. & P. From Acca to some point down South the running number is unchanged, though the train becomes the property of the Seaboard Air Line Railway. Having made these facts clear one may be excused from the task of explaining how the train equipment is divided, how much of it is actually owned by the various lines hereinbefore mentioned, and how they ever settled up in the auditor's office when a multitude of tickets must be given so that each company may receive its just compensation from each passenger.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

The Vice-President strolled out with the others. Mr. Love, who is a member of the State's dairy farm, was delegated to meet him here and escort him to Petersburg, where the cornerstone of the new building for that city was laid with impressive ceremonies.

While the facts thus set forth are correct to the best knowledge and belief of the writer, it is not out of place to mention up it is not at all certain that train No. 42 happened to leave Washington yesterday morning without a dining car. Most travelers kick the hour car is left off, few who kick go in and say, "But there was no diner aboard. With due regard to the comfort of patrons, the railroad--or railroads--sent word to Richmond that No. 42 would stop at twenty minutes in the Main Street Station so that everybody could eat."

VICE-PRESIDENT MARSHALL.

during the afternoon. Twenty minutes did not give Mr. Love sufficient time to take the Vice-President to a club, so they hustled into the lunchroom. Mr. Marshall, however, did not care to sit down to a regular dinner; he expressed a desire to partake of a familiar Virginia dish--some of that delightful Smithfield ham. So they called for it, but the railroad eating-house that supplies its boarders with real Smithfield ham is not a railroad eating-house--it's a tavern.

If anybody complained about the food provided there by President Stevens and President Harahan, the Vice-President must not be included in the number. Few people recognized him as he ate the sandwich, and those who did noticed that he did not destroy the delicious flavor of Mr. Smithfield's fine product by covering it with mustard.

Four or five years ago Mr. Rockefeller spent a few days in Richmond, and an enterprising trunk dealer displayed a rather nobby piece of stuff on the sidewalk, bearing the sign, "This trunk sold to John D. Rockefeller." Somebody last night suggested to the boy in the Main Street quick-lunch that he put up a sign announcing, "This Vice-President of the United States ate here." But he would not have done that except for the fact that for some reason train No. 42 pulled out of Washington yesterday